

SPP-SPP Global Internal Regulations

IV General Assembly 29-April-2015

Approved Version

INTRODUCTION:

1. The objective of SPP Global's Internal Regulations is to regulate its organizational life and complement the articles in its Legal By-laws that refer to such. When necessary, these Internal Regulations may be complemented by Terms of Reference and specific Procedures. These Internal Regulations are organized under the same general structure as that used in the current Legal By-laws.
2. These Internal Regulations, when necessary, reproduce texts from the Legal By-laws, appearing in blue. Texts appearing in black are specifically the Internal Regulations. When only part of a paragraph from the Legal By-laws is used, this is indicated with [...]. In these cases please consult the current Legal By-laws for the complete text. By law, the legal by-laws may only be modified at an Extraordinary Assembly.
3. According to the Legal By-laws, SPP Global's General Assembly has the sole authority to approve the Internal Regulations and/or its modifications, and in accordance, this version of the Internal Regulations was presented to and approved by SPP Global's IV General Assembly on April 29, 2015 in Panama City, Panama.

IV General Assembly 29-April-2015

Approved Version

	The Association is not-for-profit and its activities will be fundamentally designed to comply with its social objective, and therefore it may not intervene in political campaigns or engage in propaganda activities.
2	MEMBERS²
2.1	MEMBERS-OWNERS	6
2.1.1	Requirements	6
a	Be legally constituted as a Small Producers' Organization (SPO). SPP certification of the SPO in question is proof that it complies with the requirement that it be backed by a legal construct, since the latter is a requirement for SPP certification.	6
b	Be certified with the Small Producers' Symbol (Símbolo de Pequeños Productores--SPP). Specifications: 1. A small producers' organization may request membership as soon as it is in the process of becoming certified, but it may only be accepted as a Member after it has received its certification. 2. Suspension or inactivation of the certificate of a small producers' organization does not affect its status as a member, nor its respective rights and obligations. 3. The cancellation of the certificate of a small producers' organization will result in the automatic loss of its status as a member and its respective rights. Any economic obligations acquired prior to the cancellation continue to exist until liquidated.	6
2.1.2	Rights	6
a	Appoint delegates to the General Assembly in accordance with Internal Regulations If the number of Members is greater than the maximum number of spaces for the General Assembly, the acting Board of Directors will publish in the Call to Participate a table with the maximum number of representatives or "delegates" of Members-Owners, by country and by product, proportional to the number of Members-Owners represented by each country or product. This table will guarantee that every product and every country and every product category will have the right to at least one representative or delegate.	6
b	Have voice and vote in the General Assembly through delegates, ³ in accordance with the Internal Regulations. This is the only category of Members that has the right to vote in the General Assembly.	6

² The correct term in Spanish for the members of a Civil Association, in accordance with local legislation, is "Asociado" and not "Socio."

³ In the Legal By-laws, "delegate" is understood to be the same as a representative of a Member. By law, the number of votes is equal to the number of Members represented.

Specifications:

1. For each General Assembly, the current Board of Directors will establish, in the Procedures for Appointing Positions, the distribution of the seats for Member-Owners from the different geographic regions in which Members are located at the time the Assembly is convoked, seeking an equitable representation based on the number of Members located in each region or sub-region, and endeavoring to achieve representativity for all the participating regions.
2. Appointments for representatives of the different types of Members to serve on the Board of Directors are made during each physical General Assembly.
3. Board members must meet the following requirements:
 - a. Be appointed by the represented Member to fill this position. The represented Member must have been certified or registered with the SPP at least one year earlier.
 - b. Possess the willingness, technical capacity and commitment to fulfill the responsibilities of the position, in line with the profile for the position as a Board member.
 - c. Be committed to the SPP's Declaration of Principles and Values and its Code of Conduct.
 - d. Have regular access to internet.
 - e. Not serve on SPP Global's Surveillance Committee or Standards and Procedures Committee.
4. Efforts should be made to achieve a proportional representation of the population sectors represented, including: women, men, young people and older adults.
5. After Board members have been elected, the primary positions are determined through a direct vote by Members with the right to vote.
6. Board members are appointed for three-year terms, with the possibility of re-election of the same person, independently of the position filled on the Board. The same person may not serve on the Board for more than six consecutive years. However, after three years, the person may be elected again to serve on the Board.
7. Persons remaining on the Board for a new term will not necessarily fill the same position as during the previous period, as this falls within the Assembly's authority to determine.
8. Positions corresponding to representatives of Solidarity Members are also subject to an election every three years.
9. A person may only be elected to serve on the Board if he/she personally attends the General Assembly. If one person represents different Members, his/her appointment will be made in representation of the Member with which he/she has a direct link, as its leader, member or employee.
